Lesson Title: Allah's Blessings

Date:

Number of Students:

Warm up Activity:

The teacher can start the lesson with a power point presentation about poor people in Africa/Somalia and around the world. Kids without proper school, sitting on the sand with their teacher, no desks, no books, no uniform, not even decent clothes or shoes, no bags or lunch bags, ... Then they can look around them and compare what they have. She can show them pictures of sick people (suitable for their age) and compare them to us enjoying good health. ... The teacher can tell them about people in south Africa who fast the month of Ramadan and they have nothing to eat, they drink water and then they fast the following day. Let them compare it with our situation in Ramadan with all kinds of food drinks fruits and sweets....

No more than 7 minutes

By the end of the lesson the students should be able to:
1. enumerate the abundant blessings of Allah given to us and to realize that we should Thank Allah for the uncountable blessings He bestowed on us.	The warm up activity can help to achieve part of the objective. After the power point show the teacher can give the students candy. They will thank the teacher. The teacher can tell them that I gave a small candy and you were happy and said thank you, what about all the nice, great and uncountable things that Allah gave us; what are we supposed to do? The students will guess that we should thank Allah for all the bounties he gave us.	10 min.	Board/power point presentation Discussion	Questions
